This image shows a standard, plain Japanese marriage certificate form (婚姻届) with a large 'before' watermark overlaid. The form includes fields for the names of the bride and groom, their birth dates, addresses, and marital status. It also has sections for the officiant and witnesses, and a space for the couple's signatures and seals.

This image shows a decorated Japanese marriage certificate form (婚姻届) with a large 'after' watermark overlaid. The form is more aesthetically pleasing, featuring floral patterns and a 'Happy Wedding!' message. It includes the same fields as the standard form, but with a more elegant and personalized design.
